PROFESSOR BEERMAN TO SPEAK ON SUPREME COURT'S VIEWS ON CIVIL RIGHTS TODAY

Professor Jack Beerman from Boston University School of Law will speak today on the Supreme Court's recent rejection of § 1985 as a basis for liability for abortion clinic protestors. He will present his paper at 12:15 in the faculty lounge.

LAW AND ECONOMICS TEAM COMPETES

2Ls Farzad Alvi and Dorothy Clarke represented the law school over the weekend at the George Mason Law and Economic Moot Court Tournament in Washington, D.C.. After submitting a brief a month ago, they argued the tournament's problem four times before four different judicial panels. The problem concerned the legality of a horizontal merger under Section 7 of the Clayton Act. Their coach for the tournament was Bob Heidt.

SPURLING GIVES PAPER AT MEDIEVAL READING CIRCLE

Aaron Spurling (1L) recently had a paper accepted for presentation at the Seventh Annual Symposium of the Indiana University Medieval Reading Circle. The title of the paper is "Faith in Search of Understanding: The Purpose of St. Anselm's Ontological Argument." The symposium will be held in April.

NEWS FROM STUDENT ORGANIZATIONS

Environmental Law Society: Trail Maintenance Planned

The ELS will be sponsoring a day of trail maintenance in the Hoosier National Forest in celebration of Earth Day 1994. On Saturday, March 26, 1994, at 8:30 a.m., we will be meeting in the parking lot across from the Law School. The Forest Service will provide all the equipment we will need. Participants should bring gloves and wear appropriate footwear.

Rutherford Institute: Debate on Prayer in School Graduations

Mark your calendars for a debate on "Prayer at Public High School Graduation" sponsored by the Rutherford Institute. David Melton of the Rutherford Institute will debate Professor Alex Tanford. Professor Conkle will moderate. The debate is on Wednesday at 8:00 p.m. in room 121. You will not want to miss such a timely and important debate!

Sports and Entertainment Law Society: Meeting Thursday

There will be a general meeting on Thursday, March 10, 1994. We will be taking nominations for officer elections and finalizing our plans for the Pacers vs. NY Knicks basketball game. Tickets are $12.00 and money should be given to Bob Winteringham (3L). The meeting is in Room 125 at 12:00 noon. Everyone is welcome.

Women's Law Caucus: Thanks for Help

The Women's Law Caucus would like to thank all in the law school community who took part in our annual raffle and Auction. Whether it was by donating an auction package, buying raffle tickets, bidding on auction prizes or just attending the event at Mars, everyone's generosity made the event a great success, raising more than $3,800 for the Middleway House shelter and the Protective Order Project. These deserving causes thank you too! If you bid on a package, please check in with your professor soon to set up a date for your party; and we'll see you next year.!

CAREER SERVICES

Women in Public Practice, Tuesday, March 8

3:00 p.m.; Room 122

Three women attorneys from state and federal government discuss their careers and levels of professional/personal satisfaction. In addition, questions pertinent to female attorneys, such as inappropriate interview questions, maternity leave, and balancing family and work, will be addressed.

Indiana Job Fair

Thirteen Indiana employers will be recruiting 1L, 2L and 3L students at this year's Indiana Job Fair held in Indianapolis on April 5, 1994. Deadline for registering for the Indiana Job Fair is Friday, March 11th at 12 noon. Late registrations cannot be accepted.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Women's Law Caucus Sells T-Shirts This Week

The Women's Law Caucus will be selling t-shirts this week, Monday through Thursday during the lunch hour from 11-1. The t-shirt will cost $10.00. The proceeds from the t-shirt sale will help pay for a speaker on women's issues that will be co-sponsored by the WLC and PILF.
